ASAKUSA, TAITO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN,
December 12, 2025 /
EINPresswire.com/ -- PRIME 1 STUDIO is opening pre-orders for a new statue from the Fallout live-action series: Real Elite Masterline The Ghoul.

This collectible is produced at 1/4 scale and depicts The Ghoul aiming his revolver from the hip. The pose evokes the shootout in Filly, with careful attention to the torso angle, stance, and left-hand movement to reflect the character's on-screen presence.

The portrait features an exposed nasal cavity, weathered skin, and a sharp expression. Sculpting and paintwork emphasize material contrast and aging across his outfit, including the long coat, holster, and other Western-inspired details. Swappable parts allow The Ghoul to be displayed holding either his revolver or The Ghoul's Lever-Action Rifle.

The base is designed to reflect his outlaw life in the Wasteland, incorporating Dogmeat standing close at his side, a weathered Nuka-Cola refrigerator, and a television with an LED-lit screen showing Cooper Howard.

Additional interchangeable parts are included to support multiple gunfighting displays, such as scanning his surroundings while aiming, reaching for the next round, or wielding black and silver single-action revolvers.

A grinning head part is included as a bonus exclusive to the DX Bonus Version.

Lucy and Maximus statues are also planned for future release as part of the same lineup.
