A note from Lesley

"I believe that Pilates helps you connect more to yourself. And you can't connect to others if you aren't connected to you!"

Pilates changed my life and not in the way that most would think.

It helped me understand what I am capable of. What is possible. And where I can explore more.

Pilates helped me become a curious person. And I want everyone to experience self connection. Self love.

I know you're busy. And I know Pilates will change you if you let it. I hope to see you on tour!"

A note from Lesley Logan

"This isn't just about a workout; it's about celebrating movement and community," added Brad Crowell Co co-founder of OnlinePilatesClasses.com. "We're bringing the magic and community of our online studio into the real world, one city at a time."
