

Entrepreneurs Applying for UPG Biashara Class of 2026

UPG Biashara is deliberately designed for entrepreneurs - over 65% are CEOs currently running businesses.

GEVENA, SWITZERLAND, December 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Entrepreneurs from around the world are applying for the UPG Biashara Class of 2026, a remarkable opportunity that offers cash grants, free business training, international visibility and more. At this time, applications for the upcoming cycle have been received from over 75 countries across all world regions - and counting. UPG Biashara is an initiative dedicated to helping entrepreneurs transform their ideas into successful ventures, with cash grants ranging from USD 5,000 to USD 20,000. The deadline to apply is 31 December 2025.

This unique program is designed with the belief that entrepreneurs deserve comprehensive support to maximize their success. Entrepreneurs who secure a spot in the program by showcasing their ideas and passion will receive this support at no cost. The initiative includes two key phases: the Learning Journey and the Action Journey. Cash grants are awarded during the Action Journey, supported by several grant programs such as the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant. Among the incredible impact metrics include: 1,420 entrepreneurs certified, 65% are CEOs running their own businesses, over USD 350,000 in grants disbursed. To apply, visit: <https://upglive.org/UPGBiashara>.

Key highlights of the program include cash grants for selected entrepreneurs across various sectors, with amounts ranging from USD 5,000 to USD 20,000. Previous winners have come from diverse countries including India, Canada, Nigeria, Botswana, Lesotho, Sierra Leone, South Africa, Tanzania, Namibia. Another standout feature is the focus on "pitching," where participants have numerous opportunities to refine their business presentations. In 2025, the Learning Journey
