George Magazine*

From RFK, JR. and Marco Rubio, to Pam Bondi, Kash Patel and Pete Hegseth, how do you feel President Trump's Cabinet is doing so far, performance wise?

□ Key Findings:

- 67%: "They are all doing an amazing job."
- 28%: "Mixed results. Some are good. Some need to go!"
- 4%: "Could be better IF... (put suggestion in the comments.)"
- 1%: "Horrible. Scrap them all and start over."

"This poll reflects a clear mandate from our readers," said

Gene, Editor in Chief of George Magazine. "The Cabinet's performance is not just being watched, it's being affirmed. Our audience sees strength, clarity, and purpose in the current leadership team."

George Magazine has featured cover interviews with Republicans like Mike Huckabee, Independents like Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. and Democrats like Marianne Williamson.

The magazine had also interviewed Marla Maples who had told George Magazine before the 2024 election that she supported her ex-husband Donald Trump for President.

The poll was conducted on December 4, and this was after there was strong media scrutiny on Secretary Pete Hegseth regarding the bombing of an alleged Venezuelan drug ferrying boat

This poll was also after Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt defended FBI Director Kash Patel on the official U.S. Press Secretary’s social media account on reports that the President was unhappy with him.
