opportunity directly to artists and music professionals ready to take their careers to the next level. We've come across so many great artists looking for proper representation and finally we decided to say yes to that. If you consider yourself to be a musician or represent a musician in any way and are looking for a larger team with global reach to help you, please apply to join our roster. We would love to meet you! We especially love serving the independent music community, so this one is for you. I have been independent for the last 14 years and if there's anything I've learned it's that nothing can be done alone."

GRM's track record speaks for itself, having historically worked on events including top artists and global brands such as: Olivia Rodrigo, OneRepublic, Tate McRae, Katy Perry, Metallica, EJAE, Live Nation, House of Blues, Pepsi, Coca-Cola, Monster and other major industry partners.

Here are some recent highlights:

- The team produced the Hollywood Music In Media Awards (sold-out), Hollywood Independent Music Awards (sold-out) and the Promise2Live Global Suicide Prevention Gala in Los Angeles
- Partnered with NASA and Andøya Space in Norway to launch a rocket ship to space
- Built an Artist Education program which has received funding from the Canadian Federal Government
- Produced an event with household brand DoorDash in Michigan
- Worked with major movie studios & TV networks across Hollywood and beyond
- Secured radio play, national TV appearances, record deals and multiple successful global releases for many artists.

The Ghost Rocket Artist management team now includes:

- John Rodella (Los Angeles) - Former manager for Ty Dolla $ign and day-to-day manager for Wiz Khalifa
- Jonathan Janis (New York City) - Former Head of Marketing at Elektra Records (Atlantic)

Kolbjorn Blix (Andoya Space) & Luke Danelon
