Following or liking Jerry's Facebook page, you get a peek into this very private and normally not seen behind the scenes work that happens in the music world. Supporting every huge concert is anywhere from 50 to 1,000 people all working together for the same goal. That goal is to bring to the world of the music lover a wonderful and successful concert experience for all.

It should be noted that Jerry is also a really wonderful photographer who has always documented his journey through photos of music venue locations, some so beautiful in architecture and history that seeing them in itself is a treat. He also photographs some of the wonderful food catered at the venues and the gorgeous local landscapes. People follow his page because of his wit, humor and beautiful photographs. Jerry has a way with words and he works magic with a camera. He sees things that others just don't see and he uses shadows and reflections that make his photographs really stand out. He tells stories from the road, many things that most people would have no way of knowing unless they were a road warrior themselves.
