“Probate and trust real estate in Manhattan is one of the most complicated areas in the property market. Hernandez, Esq., founder of ARH Real Estate Advisory Group LLC.

“Our new platform provides exactly that: a streamlined, attorney-led concierge service that solves problems, protects the estate, and maximizes value for families.”

Serving Manhattan’s Unique Estate Property Market

Manhattan’s housing stock—co-ops, condos, historic properties, luxury estates, and investment units—requires specialized knowledge not typically found in traditional brokerage services.

The ARH platform is built specifically for:

Executors & Administrators

Trustees

Attorneys & Law Firms

Out-of-state personal representatives

International heirs

Families managing inherited property in NYC

“New York probate and trust property sales require an advisor who can move between legal, financial, and real estate issues seamlessly,” Hernandez added. “This is where our background in law, real estate strategy, and fiduciary advisory gives our clients a distinct advantage.”
