Concrete Waterproofing Systems

The content editors have responded to reader enquiries relating to questions on unusual construction related matters. The first feature is on waterproofing concrete on roofs and basements of new projects. CWS Waterproofing Systems offer a state-of-the art waterproofing technology and their clients get peace of mind from knowing that the concrete in their project will be leak-free for life. They have offered to give CBD Media expert insight into features on waterproofing concrete aspects in new commercial and industrial construction projects. Their proven concrete waterproofing technology has past the test of time in over 20 countries on 5 continents and all backed by a 25 year manufacturer's warranty.
