MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, December 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Taking the Fight" Expands Global Reach on Tubi & Xumo Play as Stuart Warren Dansby Is Inducted Into the MAMM Hall of Fame

The award-winning feature documentary "Taking the Fight"—the gripping true story of 56-year-old Stuart Warren Dansby stepping into the kickboxing ring for the first time against opponents half his age—continues its worldwide momentum with a major expansion to Tubi and Xumo Play, now streaming in 34 countries. This marks the film's sixth global platform, reinforcing its impact on international audiences and its message that "We all have a fight."

This milestone arrives just days after Stuart Warren Dansby's induction into the Matriculas Martial Arts Mastermind (MAMM) Hall of Fame on December 6, honoring his lifelong contributions to combat sports. Dansby is recognized as a 1st Degree Black Belt in American Kickboxing and the 305 Fights Welterweight Kickboxing Champion, achievements that mirror the discipline, grit, and heart showcased throughout the film.

We all have a fight”

Stuart Warren Dansby

A Story of Resilience, Reinvention & the Power of the Human Spirit

“Taking the Fight” chronicles Dansby’s six-year journey as he trains, recovers from serious injuries, and pushes beyond physical and emotional limits to pursue a championship title. At its core, the film explores not just combat—but love for the sport, the team that shapes him, and the dream that refuses to die.
