

Mangrove Garden by Lorene Faure and Kenny Kinugasa Tsui Wins Silver in A' Interior Design Awards

Innovative Workplace Design Inspired by Nature Receives Prestigious Recognition in International Competition

COMO, CO, ITALY, December 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Awards, a highly respected competition in the field of interior design, has announced that Mangrove Garden by Lorene Faure and Kenny Kinugasa Tsui has been awarded the Silver A' Design Award in the Interior Space and Exhibition Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the exceptional design and innovation demonstrated by the winning project within the interior design industry.

Mangrove Garden showcases the importance of integrating natural elements and human-centric strategies into contemporary workplace design. By emphasizing well-being and fostering social interaction, this innovative interior space aligns with current trends and needs within the industry. The design offers practical benefits for users, such as improved collaboration and engagement, while setting new benchmarks for sustainable and forward-thinking office environments.

The award-winning design features a central hub on each level, inspired by the concept of a mangrove garden. Tropical flora and structures reminiscent of mangrove trees create a vibrant and dynamic atmosphere, anchoring unique seating arrangements that promote teamwork and communication. Interactive local art installations enhance creativity and cultural resonance, while bespoke lighting and a carefully curated color palette contribute to an immersive and cohesive workspace.
