(TYS), a leading provider of a global supplier management platform, today announced its selection to the 2025/26 ProcureTech100, the annual list celebrating the 100 most pioneering digital procurement solutions shaping the future of the industry.

The ProcureTech100, now in its fifth year, enters a new chapter as Art of Procurement takes over stewardship of the highly respected, peer-driven program. The 2025/26 list was selected by a panel of executive judges representing procurement leaders, innovators, and practitioners from around the world.

“We are honored to be named to the ProcureTech100,” said Sai Nidamarty, Cofounder and CEO at Trust Your Supplier. “This recognition reflects our team’s commitment to delivering innovative solutions that help procurement teams streamline supplier onboarding, strengthen third-party risk management, and build more resilient supply chains. We are proud to stand alongside such an impressive group of industry leaders.”

The official announcement of this year’s 100 providers took place during a live webinar on December 9 at 11:00 AM ET. The 2025/26 ProcureTech100 Yearbook was also released during the event, offering insights into the technologies and emerging trends reshaping procurement.

About Trust Your Supplier

Trust Your Supplier (TYS) is a modern supplier management and third-party risk management (TPRM) platform that helps organizations streamline onboarding, automate compliance, and reduce operational and fraud risk. Built for both mid-market teams and large enterprises, TYS replaces disconnected emails, spreadsheets, and fragmented tools with a centralized system that supports every stage of the supplier lifecycle. The platform gives procurement, finance, and compliance teams clear visibility into supplier information, risk assessments, documentation, and approvals, while automated workflows reduce manual effort and maintain audit-ready records. Trusted by leading global brands across manufacturing, consumer goods, telecom, energy, financial services, and other industries, TYS provides a scalable path to stronger supplier management and more resilient supply chains.
