With the addition of the Irvine branch, Best California Movers is further positioned to coordinate high-volume intercity moves across California—from LA to Orange County, the Bay Area, and throughout the state.

The company's expansion into Irvine is driven by substantial regional growth, increased residential turnover, and strong demand for dependable moving solutions tailored to both households and commercial clients. Orange County's mix of corporate relocations, new housing developments, and expanding business districts makes the area a strategic location for the company's continued growth.

As with all company locations, the Irvine branch provides packing and unpacking services, secure storage options, furniture disassembly and assembly, and full logistics support. The office operates under the same quality standards and dispatch systems used statewide, including GPS-equipped trucks and real-time communication between customers and coordinators.
