

Clectiq Introduces Performance-Centered Growth Framework for Law Firms Seeking Scalable Case Flow

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
December 10, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Clectiq, a leading digital marketing agency for law firms, unveiled a growth framework built to help attorneys attract, convert, and sign more qualified cases through a data-first approach to SEO, Local SEO, AIO, Google Ads, Meta Ads, and intake optimization.

The framework centers on accountability and measurable outcomes, shifting law firms away from vanity metrics and toward the metric that matters—cost per signed case. Clectiq evaluates each stage of a firm’s marketing and intake ecosystem, identifying bottlenecks that slow conversions or waste ad spend.

“We built this system for firms ready to grow with clarity and discipline,” said Founder Emmanuel Kalashnikov. “When firms see where their funnel breaks and how their data behaves, they scale faster and with less waste.”

A Model Built on Selectivity and Control

To maintain execution quality, Clectiq limits onboarding to three new law firms per month and offers exclusive partnerships by practice area and city, preventing internal competition and allowing for tailored strategies.

Kalashnikov added, “Exclusivity is essential. You can’t promise strong results while serving competing firms in the same market.”

The Growth Plan: Clarity Before Commitment

Clectiq’s Growth Plan, offered only to qualified firms, includes:

- A diagnostic audit of SEO, Local SEO, paid advertising, and intake performance
- A recorded breakdown showing where case flow opportunities are
- A short review meeting to discuss readiness, fit, and availability

Proven Outcomes & Market Recognition

Clectiq has earned recognition for measurable performance and a partnership-driven model, including:

- 20+ 5-star reviews
- Google Partner status
- Awarded as a Top Digital Marketing Company, Top SEO Company, and Top PPC Company in New York by Clutch

Recent client feedback includes:

"Within 60 days, we were signing more qualified clients than we had in the past 6 months combined." — S. Gabriel, PI Firm Partner
