

The Sweetwater Shallows Announces its 10th Release: 'Where I Belong'

Evolving chemistry, shared creativity

DOHA, QATAR, December 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Sweetwater Shallows shares its 10th release, "Where I Belong," written by John Socrates Papaioannou and Vanja Grastic. This acoustic-driven track always reflects a collaborative spirit, bringing together real performances and a shared creative vision to create an intimate and authentic sound.

Rooted in the feeling of returning to the people and places that feel like home, "Where I Belong" explores life's constants, the steady anchors that remain even after a long or uncertain road, guiding listeners toward a quiet sense of belonging.

While we live in an era where technology can create music without human touch, The Sweetwater Shallows remains dedicated to crafting songs born from real-life inspiration and genuine emotion. Every note is played by skilled musicians on real instruments, proving that no matter how far technology advances, it can never replicate the soul, creativity, and emotional depth that only humans can bring to music.

The Sweetwater Shallows has long been a space for collaboration, emphasizing honest storytelling and music that resonates on a human level. "Where I Belong" continues in that spirit, shaped through a shared creative effort and a commitment to real performances by real people telling real stories. The track will be available on all major streaming platforms on January 16, 2026.

"Where I Belong" - The 10th release from The Sweetwater Shallows

Where I Belong' is about finding the people and places that feel like home, and the quiet hope that we are always moving closer to where we truly belong."
