raise critical funds for The Red Barn, an organization dedicated to providing life-changing therapeutic riding lessons and equine-assisted programs for disabled children and military veterans. These services help participants develop confidence, motor skills, emotional resilience, and social connection in a safe and supportive environment.

Activities at the event will include family-friendly games, demonstrations, meet-and-greet opportunities with therapy horses, and educational sessions about the mission and impact of The Red Barn. Attendees will also have the opportunity to tour the facility, speak with staff and volunteers, and learn how they can support the organization year-round.

“Supporting community initiatives that make a meaningful difference reflects our core values,” said Phillip Stacy, owner of DrainGo. “We are proud to assist The Red Barn in its mission to improve the well-being of children and veterans through therapeutic riding programs.”

With ongoing demand for The Red Barn’s services, funds raised during the event will help maintain program accessibility, care for therapy horses, and expand resources for families and veterans who rely on equine-assisted therapy.
