Publishing, the new international, purpose-driven book imprint of Constellate Creatives, has announced its debut publishing slate for the first half of 2026. The inaugural lineup includes a literary, historical fiction novel, a poetry book, a transformational nonfiction guide, a crime novel and a new adult novel, reflecting the imprint's dedication to diverse, purpose-driven storytelling.

Co-Founder and Strategic Director, Jill Fernandes

Founded in 2020, Constellate Creatives has played a leading role in producing viral, global marketing campaigns across social communities and digital channels. The launch of Constellate Publishing expands the studio's mission to nurture transformative writing and elevate underrepresented voices through print, eBooks and audiobooks.

“Our debut publishing round brings together stories full of courage, imagination, and emotional depth,” said Co-Founder and Strategic Director, Jill Fernandes. “These publications will resonate with readers all over the world.”

Constellate Publishing, as part of Constellate Creatives, also offers an innovative, socially responsible pricing method, which adapts to each writer's local economy, using the regional wage as a benchmark. With a strong presence in the U.S. West Coast and Midwest, across Europe, and India, Constellate Creatives focuses on storytelling that inspires a more inclusive world.

“Our unique pricing method is our personal effort to ensure voices worldwide are heard,” says Keith Roysdon, the Head of Content & Publishing at Constellate Publishing. “We look forward to hearing from authors intrigued by the endless possibilities of Constellate.”
