

American Golden Picture Int'l Film Festival recognized The Mission Possible Book Award Film with an Official Selection

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, December 14, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Golden Picture International Film Festival has recognized "The Mission Possible Book Award" Movie, a documentary film directed by Dr. Juan Phillip Chisholm with an Official Selection laurel for November 2025. Moreover, receiving this selection status laurel from the American Golden Picture International Film Festival is a significant accomplishment as 1) it serves as an important mark of recognition for any new film and/or new filmmaker and 2) is a positive step in the right direction for "The Mission Possible Book Award" documentary film.

"The Mission Possible Book Award" is a documentary movie based on the success of Dr. Juan Phillip Chisholm's award-winning book, Mission Possible: How to Graduate from College Debt-Free. The movie documentary encapsulates a remarkable story about hope, overcoming challenges, beating the odds, bouncing back after the loss of loved ones, and turning all that adversity into something positive, inspirational, and extraordinary as the movie documentary follows the success of book, Mission Possible: How to Graduate from College Debt-Free and its author, Dr. Juan Phillip Chisholm.

Additionally, The Mission Possible Book Award Movie uses archival photos and videos to bring the story to life as Chisholm uses special moments from the past in photos and videos to showcase an even brighter light on the significance of the present-day successes with Mission Possible. Also, viewers will witness the transformation of starting from humble beginnings to being catapulted into international acclaim.

Also, what's notable about "The Mission Possible Book Award" documentary film is that it continues to garner positive acclaim as earlier this year, it was acknowledged as a Global Film Festival Winner from the Global Film Festival in Los Angeles, California.

Documentary Director, Dr. Juan Phillip Chisholm shared his thoughts on the film's selection: "I am just thankful and grateful that our documentary film made from my award-winning book, Mission Possible is being recognized on a global stage as a cinematic film recognized by the American Global Picture International Film Festival. This inspires me to continue to share more of our story."
