

The Shiba Park Hotel showcases Book Tree displays and Supports Education in Underserved Countries

Connecting the future through books, the Shiba Park Hotel participates again in the NPO Room to Read Japan's "Book Baton Project"

MINATO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN, December 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This project aims to provide educational opportunities to children living in communities worldwide that experience deep educational and economic inequities. Shiba Park Hotel (operated by Shiba Park Hotel Co., Ltd.; President Rentaro Yanase) collects book donations from corporations and individuals, which are purchased by Value Books Co., Ltd., and the proceeds are donated to Room to Read Japan (Certified NPO). Donations are used for Room to Read's literacy and gender equality programming, which nurture foundational learning skills in children.

This year, hotel staff created a "Book Tree" using 665 donated books. Shiba Park Hotel, operating under the "Library Hotel" concept, holds approximately 1,500 books and has participated in this project since 2022, marking its fourth year. In 2025, book donations began in June, and a total of 665 books were collected. Since joining in 2022, approximately 8,300 books have been gathered. The Book Tree, born from the connection between books and the hotel, has a unique and beautiful form.

The hotel houses more than 1,500 books.

Many international guests leave behind books when returning home; their contributions are linked to children worldwide. Additionally, the initiative has inspired local businesses to organize book collections, creating new community interactions. The Book Tree, displayed in the hotel, serves as a symbol of the social impact of books. During the exhibition, it can be viewed by guests and visitors alongside other cultural experience events offered by the hotel.
