

Heatwave VIP Experience Giveaway

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, December 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Miami Heat are off to a strong start this season, and Meldon Law wants to send two lucky fans to an upcoming game to share in the excitement.

The logo for Meldon Law, featuring the name "MELDONLAW" in a blue, serif, all-caps font, centered within a thin blue rectangular border.

The firm is sending two fans to watch the Heat take on the Oklahoma City Thunder on January 17, 2026. The Heatwave VIP Experience provides two VIP tickets, dinner at Klaw, and luxury car service to and from the event.

Fans can enter the giveaway by visiting <https://www.meldonlaw.com/heatwave/> by January 5, 2025.

Meldon Law is offering the Heatwave VIP Experience in celebration of its recent expansion into South Florida. The firm has represented Floridians for more than 50 years, and now brings its services to those in the Miami-Dade and South Florida area. Supporting that commitment at the local level is Jessica Meldon Nessim, who leads the firm's Aventura presence and oversees the new office located at 19495 Biscayne Blvd., Suite 605, Miami, FL 33180.

Jessica began her legal career practicing immigration law in Miami and has since transitioned into personal injury law, where she handles complex motor vehicle accident cases, slip-and-fall cases, and wrongful death cases. Known for her empathetic and hardworking approach, she advocates tirelessly for individuals and families throughout the Miami community.

For the Miami Heat, "the main thing is the main thing" reflects a championship mindset. For Meldon Law, it means an unwavering focus on what matters most: securing compensation and justice for injured Floridians.

Meldon Law proudly presents this giveaway as another way to give back to the communities that have supported the firm for more than five decades.
