

Tava House Hires Wedding & Banquet Coordinator

Brings Creativity, Personalization, and a Keen Attention to Detail For Clients

WOODLAND PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, December 15, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Tava House recently announced the wedding and banquet coordinator, Stacey Lasley.

Originally from Michigan, Lasley's journey brought her to Colorado 37 years ago through her service in the United States Air Force. Known for hosting specialized celebrations for family, especially her five children and friends, it was a natural step years ago, when a friend invited her to help build a venue from the ground up and learn wedding planning at this start-up.

Lasley has planned and managed events across a broad spectrum—including collaborations, serving the military, government agencies, and the private sector—handling everything from luxury affairs to large-scale and intimate gatherings.

Stacey brings a rare blend of discipline, heart, and creativity to Tava House.”

“I’m so excited about guiding couples and families through the entire planning journey at Tava House, from envisioning their day to seeing it realized,” shared Lasley. “I thoroughly enjoy helping clients personalize their celebrations and being part of these once-in-a-lifetime moments is what makes my work so fulfilling.”

areas, offering the perfect balance of intimacy and luxury.

“Guests won’t lose that 'wow' factor because the guest list will be artfully curated,” said Lasley. “Pikes Peak’s unique setting is such a defining feature of Tava House, and I will bring it into the guest experience by intentionally planning the event timeline, layout, and atmosphere around those iconic views. From ceremony placement to transition moments and even menu presentations on the patios, I aim to create touchpoints where couples and guests can pause and appreciate the beauty of the setting.”

“Stacey brings a rare blend of discipline, heart, and creativity to Tava House,” said Chef Victor Matthews. “Her Air Force service, her years of hands-on experience building and operating venues, and her genuine love for bringing people together make her the perfect partner for our culinary and hospitality vision. At Tava House, every celebration is meant to feel intentional, personal, and unforgettable—and Stacey has an exceptional ability to guide couples and families through that journey with confidence, warmth, and care.”

Lasley’s approach to guiding couples from their first tour to their big day is a focus on building trust from the first tour by providing transparent information, attentive communication, and thoughtful recommendations. “From there, I guide couples through each part of the planning process with check-ins and logistics support. I want them to feel confident, cared for, and excited throughout the entire planning journey,” said Lasley.

“Future clients should know that I bring decades of experience, a calm and organized presence, and a true passion for planning. Whether it’s an intimate gathering or a large-scale event, I take the time to understand their vision and execute every detail with intention and care.”

In her spare time, Lasley enjoys learning about historical architecture, loves old houses, and spending time with her grandchildren, especially cherishing family moments that inspire her both personally and professionally.
