

United in Compassion: Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services Joins Lap of Love

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, January 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services is proud to announce it has joined Lap of Love Veterinary Hospice & In-Home Euthanasia, marking a new chapter in compassionate end-of-life care for pet families. Since 2012, Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services has served as a trusted provider of end-of-life veterinary care throughout Toronto and the Greater Toronto Area, and joining Lap of Love will allow the team to further its commitment to providing compassionate care to every pet and family in the community.

Dr. Faith Banks and Dr. Mary Gardner

Founded in 2009 by Dr. Mary Gardner and Dr. Dani McVety, Lap of Love is the largest network of veterinarians exclusively dedicated to in-home, end-of-life veterinary care, with more than 400 doctors supporting pet families across North America. They are the most recommended and trusted provider of in-home euthanasia, in-home hospice, telehospice, and pet loss support services.

“Lap of Love’s partnership with Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services is rooted in friendship and respect. Dr. Faith Banks and I have known each other for over a decade; we share insights, education, and a common belief that every pet deserves a dignified, peaceful passing in the comfort of home,” said Dr. Mary Gardner, Co-Founder & CEO of Lap of Love. “This collaboration represents a beautiful union of two teams with shared values.”

Dr. Faith Banks, founder of Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services, will continue leading her trusted team as they join Lap of Love, offering in-home euthanasia and pet aquamation services. Pet families in Toronto can expect the same dedicated care they have always known, now supported by Lap of Love’s additional resources in education, pet loss support, and technology.

“Providing compassionate and thoughtful end-of-life care is at the core of what we do,” said Dr. Faith Banks. “Our long-standing relationship with Lap of Love has helped shape that vision. Joining their team now feels like the right next step, one that expands our ability to support families and strengthen the trusted care we provide to our pet-loving community and referring clinics.”

Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services, a Lap of Love practice, is dedicated to providing compassionate in-home, end-of-life care for pets. They believe all pet families deserve unparalleled support, empathy, and guidance during this important stage of life. Their experienced veterinarians and care team help pets and their families with quality-of-life assessments, pain and anxiety management, end-of-life consultations, and peaceful euthanasia in the comfort of a pet’s favourite place...home. Midtown Mobile Veterinary Hospice Services is also proud to offer eco-friendly aftercare options for families through their sister company, Faithful Pet Memorial, the first aquamation (water-based cremation) service for pets in Toronto.
