

AlmaLinux OS Foundation Announces Continued Platinum-Level Sponsorship from CloudLinux and TuxCare

FORT MYERS, FL, UNITED STATES,
December 18, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The AlmaLinux OS Foundation, the nonprofit that stewards the free, community-governed open source enterprise Linux distribution, today announced that CloudLinux and its sister company TuxCare have renewed their platinum-level sponsorship, continuing in their efforts to offer key support for ongoing advancements within the community.

“On behalf of the board, I want to express our sincere appreciation to both CloudLinux and TuxCare for once again standing with us as platinum-level sponsors,” said benny Vasquez, chair of the AlmaLinux OS Foundation. “This continued support has been instrumental in accelerating AlmaLinux’s momentum – helping us expand our capabilities, further strengthen our community, and uphold the reliability that users around the world depend on. The support reinforces the long-term health of community-led enterprise Linux, and we’re grateful to move forward together with a sponsor that vehemently supports our vision for an open, stable future.”

“CloudLinux and TuxCare are extremely proud to continue supporting a truly community-driven foundation,” said Igor Seletskiy, CEO of CloudLinux and TuxCare. “At a time when open source projects controlled by a single entity can change course overnight, neutral governance and community-centered ownership are essential. That belief is at the heart of our renewed commitment to the non-profit AlmaLinux OS Foundation, which we see as providing strong stewardship for open source innovation.”
