About the STL Chapter of Credit Unions

Since its humble beginnings in 1953, The St. Louis Chapter of Credit Unions exists to promote cooperation among credit unions through educational opportunities, advocacy efforts, and engaging events. We seek to demonstrate the "credit union difference" throughout the region as we live out the philosophy of "people helping people."

We believe that everyone should have access to affordable banking solutions that strengthen their families and our communities. Credit unions are the solution - our ability to cooperate and collaborate is our strength.

The St. Louis Chapter of Credit Unions strives to keep the credit union spirit alive in the minds of our members, staff, communities, and legislators. Through our cooperative efforts we are developing leaders, educating members, and engaging elected officials.
