PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2025 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Jedidiah Gallery & Design Store announces an ongoing in-store showcase of Mega Asellia's Philly Cityscape Prints, a bold, contemporary series celebrating Philadelphia's architecture, neighborhoods, and everyday landmarks through a fresh, design-forward lens.

Mega Asellia, Philadelphia City Hall — Philly Cityscape Print (open edition), showcased at Jedidiah Gallery & Design Store.

First introduced as a gallery-exclusive presentation in 2023, the showcase invites visitors behind the scenes of Mega Asellia's creation process—highlighting references, compositional choices, and techniques that shape each cityscape. The experience is designed for collectors, design lovers, and anyone who wants to see Philadelphia not just as a place, but as a visual story.

These prints let people take a piece of Philadelphia home—familiar landmarks, reimagined with a fresh, contemporary energy.”

Enzhao Liu, Founder, Jedidiah Gallery & Design Store

“Mega's Philly cityscapes draw on our iconic impressions of these landmarks—then reimagine them into completely fresh stories,” said Enzhao Liu, founder of Jedidiah Gallery & Design Store.

“Philly has a rhythm you can feel—its streets, bridges, and skyline carry memory,” said Mega Asellia, designer, architect, and artist. “This series is my way of translating that energy into prints people can live with every day.”

A Cross-Continental Collaboration Behind the Series

The Philly Cityscape series is built on a closely collaborative working relationship between Mega Asellia and Enzhao Liu. While Enzhao lives and works in Philadelphia and Mega is based in Indonesia, the two have developed a consistent creative routine over the past two and a half years.

Enzhao approaches the collaboration like a film director—offering Mega the scope, context, and emotional texture of Philadelphia as inspiration. Mega then transforms those inputs into a new visual story that feels both recognizable and newly imagined.

At the time of this release, the artist and director are in active conversation about their next project: Philadelphia Water Works.

Open Edition Prints, Gallery-Issued Certificates

Mega Asellia's Philly Cityscape Prints are open edition and each purchase includes a gallery-issued certificate.

Prints are available in multiple sizes, with a price range of $35–$280 (from 8"x10" up to 24"x36"). Larger custom sizes are available upon request.
