

1-800-ASK-GARY® Brings Holiday Cheer to Teens at Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County

Local holiday event at the Fred DeLuca Teen Center brought teens together for gifts, treats, and meaningful community connection.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This holiday season, 1-800-ASK-GARY® partnered with Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County to create an afternoon of celebration, connection, and holiday cheer for local teens at the Fred DeLuca Teen Center in Fort Lauderdale.

Held on Thursday, December 18, the festive event brought together Club members for seasonal activities, gifts, and treats – creating a joyful experience designed to uplift teens and remind them that their community supports them during the holiday season. The partnership reflects a shared commitment to uplifting young people and investing in the communities they call home. Through hands-on involvement and meaningful giving, the partnership aims to create lasting memories and reinforce the importance of mentorship, encouragement, and belonging.

“The holidays are a powerful reminder that small moments of kindness can create a lasting impact,” said Dr. Gary Kompothecras, founder of 1-800-ASK-GARY®. “We’re proud to partner with Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County to celebrate their teens and support the vital work they do year-round to empower young people.”

Throughout the event, teens enjoyed a welcoming, upbeat environment complete with gifts and tasty treats, supported by staff and volunteers from both organizations. Members of the 1-800-ASK-GARY® team were on site to help to ensure every Club member felt valued, celebrated, and included.

“As we celebrate 60 years of service, providing a world class club experience, partnerships such
