In his episode, Christensen shares how a turbulent upbringing and major setbacks after leaving the military—including divorce, loss, and a season of deep struggle—became the turning point that pushed him to rebuild his life through fitness. After transforming his own health and losing 100 pounds, he founded Burlington Fit Body Boot Camp to help everyday people regain confidence through discipline, accountability, and community. He emphasizes that motivation fades, but consistent action—and the right support system—can change everything.

"No matter how far you've fallen, you can always rise stronger," said Christensen.

David's episode will be available soon on the Inside Success Network, streaming on popular platforms. In the meantime, you can learn more by visiting
