

WebWork Founder Vahagn Sargsyan Publishes New Book 'Builder's Time'

A new book on intentional time design for founders, leaders, and teams seeking clarity, deep work, and real progress.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, January 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vahagn Sargsyan, founder of WebWork Time Tracker, has released his first book, "Builder's Time: The Blueprint for Creators, Leaders, and Teams to Master Time."

The book draws from Sargsyan's experience leading a 150+ person software agency and building multiple SaaS products and mobile games with over 10 million downloads. It explores why teams spend only a fraction of their time actually building, while the rest disappears into meetings, context switching, and invisible transitions.

Through three dimensions – Personal Time, Team Time, and Product Time – the book offers a framework for designing time with intention rather than reacting to daily urgencies.

Builder's Time is available now on Amazon, Apple Books, Barnes & Noble, Kobo, Thalia, Smashwords, and other platforms.

“

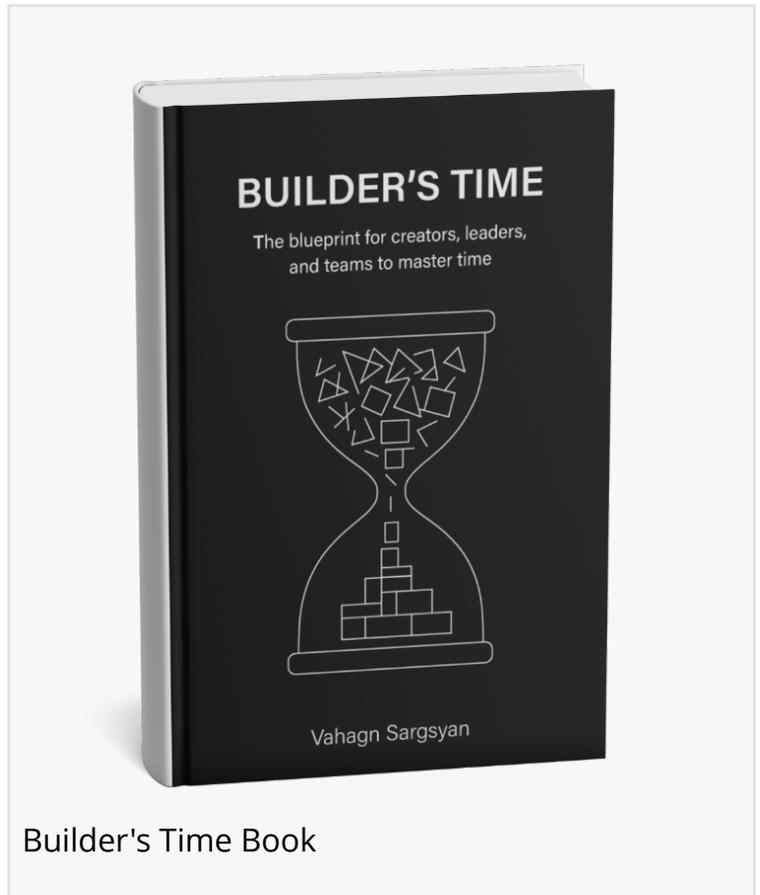

I wrote this book so other founders won't have to learn the hard way what it takes to design time with intention.”

Vahagn Sargsyan
