

CCS Ranks 18th on the MSSP Alert Global Top 250 List

Recognition highlights CCS's leadership and innovation in managed security services

HAUPPAUGE, NY, UNITED STATES, January 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CCS (Custom Computer Specialists) announced it has been ranked 18th on the prestigious MSSP Alert Top 250 Global Managed Security Service Providers (MSSPs) for 2025, a ranking that recognizes the world's leading providers of managed security services.

This recognition reflects our relentless focus on delivering high-quality security services, and investing in advanced technologies.”

Jay Whitchurch, CEO CCS

Published annually by MSSP Alert, a CyberRisk Alliance resource, the Top 250 list identifies MSSPs that demonstrate excellence in areas such as service innovation, customer impact, operational maturity, and the ability to address today's rapidly evolving cybersecurity threat landscape. CCS's placement at number 18 (9th in the US) underscores the company's continued growth, technical expertise, and commitment to protecting organizations from increasingly sophisticated cyber threats.

“Being recognized at this level in the rankings on the MSSP Alert Top 250 list is a significant achievement for our team,” said Jay Whitchurch, CEO of CCS. “This recognition reflects our relentless focus on delivering high-quality security services, investing in advanced technologies, and providing our clients with the confidence that their environments are protected around the clock.”

The MSSP Alert Top 250 ranking evaluates companies worldwide based on factors including managed security service offerings, customer satisfaction, market presence, and the ability to adapt to emerging risks. CCS's strong showing places it among an elite group of global cybersecurity providers.

“This recognition reflects not only the strength of our security platform, but also the trust our customers place in CCS as their long-term security partner,” said Adam Lapitino, Leader of CCS' MSP business. “Our continued growth is driven by listening to our clients, expanding our service capabilities, and scaling in ways that help organizations stay ahead of evolving cyber risks.”

As cyber threats continue to increase in volume and complexity, CCS remains focused on expanding its capabilities, strengthening its security operations, and delivering proactive, intelligence-driven protection for organizations across industries.
