Epoch Automotive in Doylestown enhances diagnostic precision with updated Kia-compatible software, improving system access and repair accuracy.

DOYLESTOWN, PA, UNITED STATES, March 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Epoch Automotive Acquires Updated Software for Kia

Epoch Automotive, an independent repair facility serving Bucks County, has expanded its diagnostic capabilities by acquiring updated software designed for Kia vehicles. The upgrade provides improved access to manufacturer-specific data, system controls, and guided testing procedures, supporting the shop's commitment to accurate and transparent auto repair in Doylestown.

The updated platform allows technicians to interface with Kia powertrain systems, safety modules, communication networks, and emission-related components. With enhanced coverage for late-model vehicles, the software enables more precise identification of drivability issues, sensor irregularities, and intermittent electrical faults that may otherwise require dealership intervention.

Keeping our software current ensures we can diagnose and repair Kia vehicles using the most accurate information available.”
