Operation CEO is a cinematic docu-series that honors the entrepreneurs, leaders, and innovators who once served their country and are now building businesses with purpose.

In his episode, Shepherd reflects on how his childhood, military service, and faith shaped a life centered on service. After retiring from the U.S. Army, he founded KinderCare In Aneho to support vulnerable children in Togo through education and essential resources, and now also serves as an operating partner with 1NA Alkaline Water. He discusses leading through observation, acting with intention, and how transforming overlooked resources can create meaningful global impact.

"True leadership is measured by the lives we lift — not the titles we've held," said Shepherd.

Andrew's episode will be available soon on Inside Success Network, streaming on popular platforms. In the meantime, you can find out more by visiting <https://cast.operationceotv.com/andrew-shepherd>.
