Honoring influential women leaders, youth changemakers, and male ally honorees at a purpose-driven Philadelphia brunch on March 7, 2026.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, December 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On March 7, 2026,

We are gathering to bridge the gap between today's icons and tomorrow's leaders. This brunch reflects strength in service and the power of collective empowerment."

Founder of Jewelz Foundation Inc. & CEO of Droppin' Jewelz LLC.

the historic Moshulu at Penn's Landing will set the stage for the Droppin' Jewelz Women's Empowerment & Awards Brunch. This high-profile gala is more than a meal; it is a dedicated movement to honor the architects of our community—influential women leaders and the courageous young trailblazers following in their footsteps.

Hosted by Droppin' Jewelz LLC, the event recognizes excellence across business, education, faith, and advocacy. In a powerful display of unity, the brunch will also spotlight select Youth Honorees from Jewelz Foundation Inc. and Male Ally Honorees—distinguished men who have demonstrated an unwavering commitment to mentoring women and uplifting the next generation.

"We are gathering to bridge the gap between today's icons and tomorrow's leaders," said Kendra Hall, Executive Director of Jewelz Foundation Inc. and Founder & CEO of Droppin' Jewelz LLC. "This brunch is a testament to the strength found in service and the beauty of collective empowerment."
