The Business Research Company

Which Market Player Is Leading the Pet Raw Food Market?
According to our research, Stella & Chewy's LLC led global sales in 2024 with a 3% market share. The company is partially involved in the pet raw food market growth, provides freeze-dried and raw frozen forms, designed to mirror pets' ancestral diets with 85-98% meat, organs, and bone to support overall health including muscle, bone, and joint strength. Their products are free from fillers, grains, artificial preservatives, and common allergens, catering to pets with sensitivities. They also provide meal mixers, toppers, and high-protein treats, making raw feeding convenient and nutritionally complete for dogs and cats of all life stages.

How Concentrated Is the Pet Raw Food Market?

The market is fragmented, with the top 10 players accounting for 9% of total market revenue in 2024. This level of fragmentation reflects low entry barriers for new entrants, the diverse preferences of pet owners, and the growing demand for specialized, niche, and natural pet food products. Leading vendors such as Stella & Chewy's LLC, Primal Pet Foods Inc., and Natures

Menu Ltd. hold small but notable market shares, while numerous smaller players cater to specific pet diets, local preferences, and specialized formulations. As consumer awareness of pet health and nutrition rises, consolidation, strategic partnerships, and expansion of product portfolios are expected to drive growth and gradually strengthen the market position of established brands.
