

Tim Sechler Featured Speaker at Elder Law Bootcamp in Warrendale

Twice-yearly program brought together cross-industry professionals to strengthen elder care collaboration

WARRANDALE, PA, UNITED STATES, January 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tim Sechler, Esq., CELA,

With the Elder Law Bootcamp, our goal is to give them straightforward information they can use the next day at work and to connect them with a team they can call when legal questions come up."

Tim Sechler, Esq., CELA

served as the featured speaker at The Elder Law Bootcamp, held Nov. 19, 2025, at Sechler Law Firm, LLC in Warrendale.

The bootcamp brought together 67 attendees, including nurses, nursing home administrators, social workers, counselors, financial advisors, life insurance agents, and other professionals who support older adults and their families.

Through focused sessions, Sechler covered asset protection, Medicaid and long-term care planning, and common estate planning pitfalls that affect patients and clients. The program aimed to give attendees practical tools to identify legal issues early, coordinate care more effectively, and connect families with appropriate elder law resources.

"Professionals on the front lines of elder care see the stress families are under, but they are not always given clear guidance on the legal side," Sechler said. "With the Elder Law Bootcamp, our goal is to give them straightforward information they can use the next day at work and to connect them with a team they can call when legal questions come up."

In addition to the educational sessions, the event emphasized relationship-building and cross-industry collaboration. Attendees met peers from multiple disciplines, discussed real-world case scenarios and explored ways to align medical, social and financial guidance with sound legal planning.

The group was impressed by the event's narrow focus on key information, with one attendee leaving feedback that Tim's special ability is making complicated topics easy to understand. Another repeat attendee noted, "I came last year, but this is such great information that I plan to come yearly."

The firm hosts The Elder Law Bootcamp twice a year and plans to continue offering the program as demand for elder law planning and long-term care guidance grows in Western Pennsylvania. Since 2023, it has presented the bootcamp regularly as a free half-day program with continuing education credits for social workers, nursing home administrators, nurses, financial professionals and life insurance agents.

Firm owner Tim Sechler, Esq., CELA, is based in Warrendale, Pennsylvania.
