Ruadán Books Announces that industry expert Steven Pamplin will join the "fox den" in Project Management

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, January 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ruadán Books is delighted to announce that Steven Pamplin has joined the growing Boston-based indie publisher. Steven is spearheading project management for the press.

"With the new distribution model and tripling the number of upcoming publications in the next two years, it was time to bring greater order to our brand of madness," says CEO R. B. Wood. "Steve offers industry acumen along with an eye for detail that will make us more effective in delivering our brand of entertainment and thoughtful literature to the public. We are excited to have signed such a talent to our growing company!"

Steve Pamplin

Steven brings years of experience in publishing project management to the team, with a focus on turning complex processes into seamless operations. As a fierce advocate for his collaborators both creative and administrative, Steven's focus is always on cultivating the truest form of an author's work.

"As someone who's passionate about working closely with authors to bring their vision to life, I'm thrilled to be part of the Ruadán family," says Steven. "Their authenticity and experience perfectly aligns with my goal of helping our authors create exceptional work and reach audiences far and wide."

As the fox den continues to grow, we look forward to bigger and darker things for our authors and readers in 2026 and beyond.
