Submit nomination online by February 28th.

BOISE, ID, UNITED STATES, January 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Idaho Humanities Council (IHC) needs your help celebrating the amazing teachers in your community! The IHC invites members of the public to nominate teachers across Idaho, who are doing exceptional work in Kindergarten through 12th grade classrooms, for the newly-named Hester Spackman Outstanding Educator Award. This award, named for the teacher whose family built the home of the IHC, recognizes humanities teachers around Idaho who are making outstanding contributions to teaching history, literature, law, foreign language, government and philosophy. In 2025, the IHC recognized teachers from Boise, Moscow, and Rexburg for this award.

We love to celebrate Idaho's incredible teachers! We rely on nominations from the public to help us recognize teachers in every corner of the state and every year it is a joy to see so much support!"
