

Naples Auto Vault Appoints Jackie Nelson as Exclusive Sales Representative for Luxury Collector Condominium Project

Naples Auto Vault, has named Jackie Nelson of Premier Sotheby's International Realty as its exclusive sales representative.

NAPLES, FL, UNITED STATES, January 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Naples Auto Vault, a new premium collector condominium concept offering customizable vehicle and lifestyle suites, has named Jackie Nelson of Premier Sotheby's International Realty as its exclusive sales representative. The appointment marks a significant step forward for the project as it enters a key phase of development and begins engaging prospective buyers throughout Southwest Florida's luxury and collector communities.

This is a place where owners can leave their cherished vehicles, artwork, or collections without worry”

Situated in a prime Naples location, Naples Auto Vault is designed for high-net-worth individuals, automobile aficionados, and collectors seeking secure, design-forward ownership spaces. Unlike traditional storage or leased warehouses, the development offers for-sale, customizable studios that can be tailored for luxury automobile storage, fine wine collections, art displays, private workspaces, or personal gathering environments.

A Strategic Appointment for a One-of-a-Kind Ownership Opportunity

Nelson brings deep experience within Naples' luxury lifestyle market, where she has built strong relationships with high-profile residents and seasonal homeowners. Her understanding of the region's discerning clientele makes her uniquely positioned to guide buyers considering Naples Auto Vault's ownership model.

“Naples is paradise,” Nelson shared in a recent conversation. “We have an incredible seasonal and international community, and many clients own remarkable vehicles or personal collections. There has long been a need for a secure, luxury space where people feel confident leaving their valuables when they travel or return north.”

Nelson explained that buyers today are increasingly looking for alternatives to leased storage—options that offer both long-term security and asset ownership. Naples Auto Vault’s model, she said, is arriving at “exactly the right time” for the market.

Customizable Suites Designed for Lifestyle and Security

Naples Auto Vault’s collector studios are being developed by Lugert Companies, a respected Naples builder with a 60-year legacy of residential and commercial projects. The development offers robust security features and strategic inland positioning to meet FEMA standards—an advantage Nelson says today’s buyers value highly.

“This is a place where owners can leave their cherished vehicles, artwork, or collections without worry,” she noted. “The security, the central location, the structural planning—it all gives buyers real peace of mind.”

Early buyers also have the rare opportunity to personalize their suites through a collaboration with Clive Daniel Home, Naples' award-winning interior design firm. Nelson emphasized that as construction progresses, the window for full customization narrows. “As we go vertical, that customization window becomes very limited,” she said.

A Trusted Advisor Known for Guiding Naples’ Most Discerning Clients

As Naples Auto Vault’s exclusive sales representative, Nelson will serve as the primary point of contact for all inquiries, buyer consultations, and studio selections. Known for her concierge-level service and nuanced understanding of the luxury lifestyle market, she aims to help clients navigate the unique considerations of collector-studio ownership.

“There are many facets to this opportunity,” Nelson explained. “My role is to walk clients through the details—whether they’re designing a vehicle gallery, planning a private workspace, or exploring long-term investment value.”
