The move re-establishes Marina Plastic Surgery's presence on the Westside of Los Angeles with a larger footprint and dedicated onsite amenities designed to help streamline the surgical and recovery process. The new location was selected to support the practice's growing patient base across Los Angeles and surrounding Southern California communities, with an expanded clinic designed to improve convenience for patients.

The facility operates under the direction of board-certified plastic surgeon Dr. Perez. The medical team at the Brentwood location includes Dr. Daniel Yamini, supporting continued capacity and the standard of care for which Marina Plastic Surgery is known throughout the Los Angeles area.

“Returning to the west side allows us to serve our patients with the space and accessibility they deserve,” said Dr. Perez. “This expansion is about reinforcing our commitment to this community and ensuring our environment reflects the quality of our clinical work.”
