

VP Fintech Group's investee, Valens Pay, reaches One Million users

Milestone underscores strong global adoption and scalability of Valens Pay's banking technology platform

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The VP Fintech Group, a specialist investment company focused on banking and financial technology, today announced that its subsidiary, Valens Pay, has surpassed one million registered users.

This milestone reflects the continued growth and adoption of Valens Pay's digital payments and banking technology platform across multiple markets. The achievement underscores both the scalability of the underlying infrastructure and the increasing demand for modern, flexible financial services solutions.

Valens Pay has been developed to serve a broad range of users and partners, combining secure payment capabilities with a technology-driven approach designed to support future expansion across markets. Reaching one million users represents a significant validation of the platform's product strategy and execution.

The VP Fintech Group continues to support Valens Pay's growth through strategic investment, regulatory development, and long-term technology initiatives aimed at strengthening its position within the global fintech ecosystem.
