Rap Snacks Founder and CEO James Lindsay Launches Healthier For You Snacks DO THE RIGHT THING

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, January 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- James Lindsay, the founder and CEO of Rap Snacks, the brand known for fusing hip-hop culture with bold flavors, today announced the launch of its new line of healthier potato chips. Designed for fans who want to snack smarter without sacrificing taste, the new chips feature reduced sodium, cleaner ingredients, and baked options.

"Rap Snacks has always been about more than food — it's about culture, community, and authenticity," said James Lindsay, Rap Snacks Founder.

"With this new line, we're proving that healthier choices can still be flavorful, fun, and connected to the artists and communities we serve."

The healthier chips will debut in flavors inspired by Rap Snacks, spotlighting those who champion wellness and positivity. Each bag will also feature QR codes linking to exclusive content, including artist interviews and wellness tips.

The healthier-for-you snacks are available in Veggie Krackle Carrot Ranch and Veggie Krackle Broccoli Cheddar, with additional flavors to be added soon. From the cheesy bite of Broccoli Cheddar Veggie Krackle and the cool, tangy crunch of Carrot Ranch Veggie Krackle, every flavor is crafted with 100% avocado oil and real vegetables. Delicious, crunchy, and made the right way.

The new line is available nationwide at major retailers and online at
