A leader in the cybersecurity space, we are excited to help ThreatLocker grow their brand further through the naming of the ThreatLocker Garage.”

Orlando Magic President of Business Operations Charlie Freeman

“The Orlando Magic are thrilled to continue elevating its existing partnership with ThreatLocker,” said Magic President of Business Operations Charlie Freeman. “A leader in the cybersecurity space, we are excited to help them grow their brand further through the naming of the ThreatLocker Garage. And as Magic COTC partners since 2023, our organizations share a commitment to the local community and look forward to seeing the partnership flourish through a collective commitment to Central Florida.”

ThreatLocker is one of the team's nine COTC partners. These partners represent a unique tier of brands with a shared commitment to the Central Florida community.

"As ThreatLocker has grown from a local startup into a leading global cybersecurity company, our roots in Central Florida remain at the core of our identity," said ThreatLocker CEO and Co-founder Danny Jenkins. "The Orlando Magic's long-standing support for local businesses has played an important role in our journey, and we are proud to make the ThreatLocker Garage the next step in our partnership."

ThreatLocker offers a cost-effective approach to cybersecurity using controls to prevent threats like ransomware. With a team of skilled cybersecurity professionals offering 24/7 support, ThreatLocker assists businesses globally and continues to create a safer and more secure world.

About the Orlando Magic

Orlando's NBA franchise since 1989, the Magic's mission is to be world champions on and off the court, delivering legendary moments every step of the way. Under the DeVos family's ownership, the Magic have seen great success in a relatively short history, winning seven division championships (1995, 1996, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2019, 2024, 2025) with eight 50-plus win seasons and capturing the Eastern Conference title in 1995 and 2009. Off the court, on an annual basis, the Orlando Magic gives more than $2 million to the local community by way of sponsorships of events, donated tickets, autographed merchandise and grants. Orlando Magic community relations programs impact an estimated 100,000 kids each year, while a Magic staff-wide initiative provides more than 7,000 volunteer hours annually. In addition, the Orlando Magic Youth Foundation (OMYF) which serves at-risk youth, has distributed more than $31 million to local nonprofit community organizations over the last 36 years. The Magic's other entities include the team's NBA G League affiliate, the Osceola Magic, 2021 G League champions, and the Orlando Solar Bears of the ECHL, which serves as the affiliate to the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning. The Magic play their home games at the award-winning Kia Center – voted by fans no. 1 in the NBA for game experience; honored with The Stadium Business Awards' Customer Experience Award; named SportsBusiness Journal's Sports Facility of the Year; and awarded the Venue Excellence Award (VEA) by the International Association of Venue Managers. The Magic practice at the award-winning AdventHealth Training Center. The Magic was also recognized by the Sports Business Journal as one of the "Best Places to Work" in sports in 2023 and 2024.
