

Agency IQ 360 Launches Profit Intelligence Platform Built for SEO Agencies

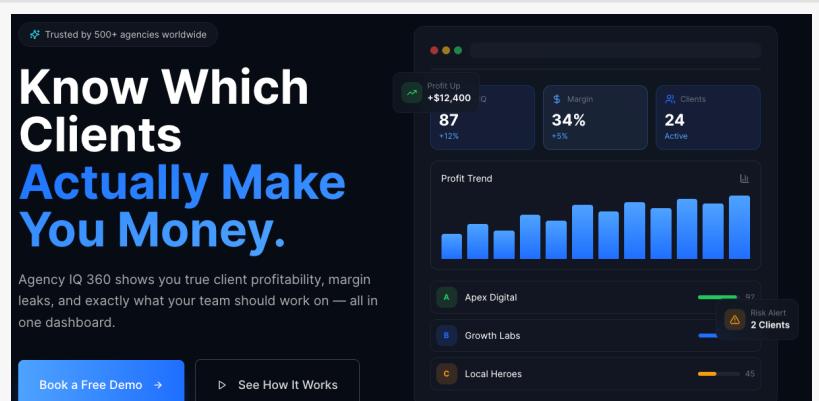

New software delivers true client profitability, profit-aware sprint planning, and operational clarity for SEO and marketing agencies.

THOUSAND OAKS, CA, UNITED STATES, January 8, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Agency IQ 360, a new profit intelligence platform purpose-built for marketing and SEO agencies, officially launches today, a groundbreaking business intelligence platform designed to help marketing and SEO agencies finally understand which clients, channels, and tasks truly deliver profit, and which quietly drain it.

Agency IQ 360 addresses a problem most agency owners quietly struggle with: while revenue is easy to see, true profitability is not. By combining financial data, delivery effort, and execution intelligence into a single system, the platform reveals which clients, channels, and tasks actually generate profit and which ones quietly erode margins. Agency IQ 360's goal is to increase profits for SEO Companies.

“Most agencies know their revenue, but very few know which clients actually make them money,” said a spokesperson for Agency IQ 360. We built Agency IQ 360 to bring clarity back to agency operations.”

Increase Your SEO Companies Profits

rarely have a clear answer to: which clients deliver the highest profit margins.

A Deep Look at Profitability, Not Just Activity

Agency IQ 360 goes beyond traditional reporting tools by integrating profitability science and operational execution intelligence in one place. The product's modular architecture includes:

- Client IQ: True client profitability with revenue, cost, and margin analytics
- Work IQ: Automated, profit-aware task prioritization and sprint generation
- Channel IQ: Profitability comparison across SEO, PPC, LSA, and other channels
- Task IQ: Effort vs impact scoring for work transparency
- Margin IQ and Risk IQ: Higher-level indicators that protect agency health

Designed for agency founders, operations leaders, and delivery managers, the platform reveals not just what's happening — but what to do next. This insight empowers agencies to run more strategically and profitably.

Automated Sprint Logic for Actionable Execution

A key differentiator is the built-in sprint engine, which generates monthly and quarterly task plans based on:

- Impact
- Effort
- Risk
- Client profitability weighting

This workflow-driven approach ensures teams work on what matters most — aligned to business outcomes, not just task completion.

Most Agencies Are Busy, Not Profitable

- Revenue looks good, margins feel tight
- Some clients consume too much time
- Teams stay busy, priorities stay unclear
- Decisions are made on gut instead of data

If you don't know profit per client, profit per channel, and profit per task — you're running blind.

Know Your True Profit Margins

Revenue Isn't the Goal. Profitability Is.

Agency IQ 360 turns your agency into a profit-first operation by connecting financial data, delivery effort, and execution signals into one decision system.

Your Agency's Operating System

See which clients to protect, fix, or rethink
