

Honeygirl Delivers Raw Storytelling with New Country Music Single 'Drinking Too Much Again'

Drinking Too Much Again, captures the emotional toll alcohol once took on her relationship with co-writer, now husband, Scotty Johnson, of the Gin Blossoms.

PHOENIX, AZ, UNITED STATES, January 9, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Country artist Honeygirl returns with her latest release, "Drinking Too Much Again," an honest track that blends classic country storytelling with modern grit & style.

Written and co-produced by Honeygirl — the artist name of Kira Brown — the song draws from a true chapter in her life, capturing the emotional toll alcohol once took on her personal relationship with co-writer, now husband, Scotty Johnson, longtime guitarist for the multi-platinum band Gin Blossoms and a respected Arizona music veteran.

With unflinching lyrics and a vulnerable vocal performance, "Drinking Too Much Again" speaks to love tested by challenges and the courage it takes to confront uncomfortable truths.

Johnson's Southwestern-forward guitar work gives the song a warm, organic foundation, echoing the sounds of desert highways, late-night reflections, and timeless American songwriting traditions.

Produced by Larry Elyea at Mind's Eye Digital Recording Studio in Phoenix, Arizona, the track strikes a balance between polished production and lived-in authenticity. The finished track keeps the song grounded and emotionally direct, making it equally at home on country playlists, country radio, and singer-songwriter stages.
