EATONTOWN, NJ, UNITED STATES, January 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. William Ziegler and Dr. Alan Martinez of the Reproductive Science Center of New Jersey (RSCNJ) have been reviewed and approved by NJ Top Docs for 2025 based on merit. This merit-based approval highlights their commitment to delivering compassionate, cutting-edge fertility care in a space where every patient feels heard, supported, and empowered.

Reproductive Science Center of New Jersey

At the heart of RSCNJ's success is a forward-thinking approach that embraces innovation without losing sight of the human experience. Recently, the practice joined The Prelude Network®—the largest and fastest-growing fertility care network in North America—further expanding their resources and reach.

One of the most emotional moments is showing a patient their baby's heartbeat for the first time. ”

Patient-centered care drives every aspect of the RSCNJ experience. "We start with early morning monitoring, allowing patients to continue their daily activities," explains Dr. Martinez, underscoring the clinic's flexible and considerate scheduling. From there, the day flows with personalized consultations, procedures, and fertility treatments, which are—each tailored to the unique needs of the individual.

Celebrating over two decades with RSCNJ, Dr. Ziegler reflects on the emotional depth of his work.

"One of the most emotional moments is showing a patient their baby's heartbeat for the first time," he shares, a powerful reminder of the hope and joy that fertility care can bring to growing families.

Dr. Martinez emphasizes the strength of the team behind every success story: "Everyone takes pride in helping patients through their fertility journey and supporting them during tough times." It's this unified commitment—from the front desk to the lab—that creates a warm, supportive environment where patients are never alone.

With their blend of advanced technology, compassionate care, and dedicated teamwork, Drs. Ziegler and Martinez continue to set the standard for fertility care in New Jersey and beyond.
