Iconic American band, THREE DOG NIGHT, now celebrating its 6th decade, boasts some of the most astonishing chart statistics in popular music with 21 consecutive Billboard Top 40 hits, including 3 #1 singles and 12 straight RIAA Certified Gold LPs. Created in 1968 by Irish-born Danny Hutton, the band was conceived with the intention of featuring three strong vocalists who can sing leads and also blend together in three-part harmony, all supported by a group of great rock musicians. This ultimately became Three Dog Night's signature sound. The band resurrected and interpreted songs of the best new songwriters of its time including Harry Nilsson, Randy Newman, Elton John, Laura Nyro, Paul Williams and Hoyt Axton among many others. From their debut eponymous album, Three Dog Night went on to release 12 gold albums and by 1975, driven by chart-topping songs like "One", "Easy to be Hard", "Mama Told Me (Not to Come)", "Joy to the World", "Black and White", "Shambala" and others, the band had sold over 50 million records.

Three Dog Night continues to perform over 80 shows a year - thrilling multigenerational audiences by delivering those larger-than-life songs with customary impeccable harmonies over a hard-driving rock foundation. This year, Three Dog Night will release a new album entitled Enter, its first studio album in nearly 40 years, which once again displays the group's eclectic taste and distinctive recording style that resulted in THREE DOG NIGHT dominating the charts for years.
