Foghat still ridin' strong on the "Slow Ride" 50th Anniversary tour. In 2025, Foghat is celebrating two major milestones: 54 years of rock 'n' roll mayhem and 50 years of "Slow Ride," the timeless anthem that put them on the global map and hasn't let up since. Born in 1971 when Roger Earl and Lonesome Dave Peverett left Savoy Brown to carve their own path, Foghat quickly found their groove—and fans found a band they could crank up loud and boogie to. It all exploded in 1975 with Fool for the City, their double-platinum masterpiece featuring the now-legendary track "Slow Ride." Just two years later, Foghat Live went multi-platinum and cemented their rep as one of the rock's most electrifying live bands. Half a century later, Foghat is still riding high.

The legendary classic rock band Head East has long set the standard for authentic, full-vocal, goodtime rock harmonies that few bands can equal. Their high-energy shows are filled with superb vocals, flashy guitar work and memorable keyboard melodies that continue to rock audiences of all ages. This year Head East will be celebrating their 50th Anniversary by performing most cuts off of their iconic record "Flat As A Pancake". The band has brought classic arena rock to countless audiences all across North America. According to founding member and keyboardist Roger Boyd, "As long as I can lift my synthesizer over my head and the audience goes wild, we'll keep rockin' on!"
