

Chicago Sports Poet Matt Ballard releases stirring tribute poems for the Chicago Bears

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned local sports poet Matt Ballard has announced the release of his passionate and dynamic videos and poems dedicated to the Chicago Bears organization and its loyal fan base.

The Chicago Bears are more than just a football team; they're a part of the city's identity.”

Matthew Ballard

The poems, titled Go Bears Poem, Dare Bear, Bear Girls, That Dog Gone Bears Fan available on his YouTube channel aim to capture the spirit, history, and renewed energy of the iconic Bears.

Known for his “daredevil, action-packed poetry style” and ability to blend sports enthusiasm with rhythmic verse, Ballard has been a staple in the Chicagoland poetry scene for years, with previous works covering the Cubs, White Sox and Blackhawks. His work has been featured across various local media outlets, including WGN TV, WBBM Radio, Mancow Show, Johnathan Brandmeier, the News Sun and others.

“The Chicago Bears are more than just a football team; they're a part of the city's identity,” said Ballard. “Writing this poem was a chance to put into words the grit, the history, and the unwavering hope that every true Bears fan feels. I hope it resonates with the community and adds to the excitement of the current season.”

The poems are available for viewing on Matt Ballard's TikTok or YouTube Channels or on his website at www.rhymesandpoems.com. Matt can also be reached at 847-912-9697.
