MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, January 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Festive Chickpea Hearts™, a plant-based snack brand made from husk-free chickpeas, enters 2026 with a refreshed website and improved texture, continuing the brand's emphasis on allergy-friendly snacks that prioritize flavor alongside function. Protein-packed, rich in fiber, potassium, iron, and healthy fats, these plant-powered bites reinforce that better-for-you-snacking shouldn't mean boring bites.

Festive Chickpea Hearts™ aims to help consumers pivot away from mindless munching by providing snacks that make the everyday moments more celebratory. Each handful offers the same satisfying crunch as traditional snacks like chips and popcorn, while delivering real nutritional value without empty calories.

Made from chickpeas that are dehusked for snacking convenience, roasted to a craveable crunch, and generously seasoned with flavors including Spicy, Cheesy, Ranch, BBQ, and Sour Cream & Onion, Festive expertly balances flavor and nutrition. Every option meets the demands of snackers craving both taste and texture.
