Law firms often lose valuable time coordinating notarizations; from scheduling conflicts and in-person delays to manual uploads and disconnected systems. Clients wait days or even weeks, staff juggle multiple platforms, and cases stall. The NotaryLive and SmartAdvocate partnership was built to remove these bottlenecks entirely.

By embedding remote online notarization directly into SmartAdvocate, firms can initiate notarization sessions within their existing case files. Clients receive a secure link, complete identity verification, and connect with a licensed notary via live video, often in minutes instead of days. Once completed, notarized documents automatically return to the correct SmartAdvocate case with digital stamps and seals, eliminating manual uploads, duplicate data entry, and lost files.

“Legal teams are under constant pressure to move fast without sacrificing compliance,” said Matthew Marks, Director of Strategic Partnerships. “This partnership puts notarization directly into existing case management systems, streamlining document workflows and enhancing trust while helping legal teams work smarter".

SmartAdvocate users can also configure their dashboards to launch notarization sessions directly from case files, track activity across high-volume caseloads, and scale operations without adding administrative headcount. The integration is especially impactful for personal injury firms handling hundreds of active cases, mass tort practices processing large case influxes, and firms serving clients across multiple states or rural areas.

"Our partnership with NotaryLive enhances both the firm and client experience by removing delays and manual steps from the notarization process," says Allison Rampolla, SVP Sales and Marketing, "It's another way SmartAdvocate helps firms work smarter and serve clients better".

The partnership supports state-compliant remote online notarization and helps firms reduce staff burnout, eliminate scheduling delays, and maintain confidence in compliance across jurisdictions. Whether firms are existing SmartAdvocate users, current NotaryLive customers, or new to both platforms, the integration creates a seamless path to faster, more efficient case resolution.
