A Natural Evolution of Comfort

Founded in 2003, Skin Worldwide was born from a philosophy of honoring the body rather than reshaping it. Known for pieces that feel like a "second skin," the brand has built a loyal global following through its use of organic materials and minimalist silhouettes.

Vandale, a global leader in intimate apparel and activewear, announced the acquisition of SKIN Worldwide.

"Skin is a natural complement to the Vandale family," said Maurice Setton, President of Vandale. "By marrying Skin's high-design ethos with Vandale's robust design team and flexible manufacturing network, we are positioned to scale this vision while preserving the 'quiet luxury' that defines the brand. This is a strategic expansion that underscores our commitment to growth in the luxury lifestyle sector."

Synergies in Innovation and Design

Vandale's acquisition of Skin provides a unique competitive advantage for both entities:

- Operational Excellence: Skin will leverage Vandale's deep expertise in sleep/lounge, shapewear, and activewear, supported by an expansive distribution network.

- Creative Stewardship: Vandale's experienced design team will work to honor Skin's distinct brand DNA, ensuring that the transition into the Spring 2026 collection remains rooted in the brand's signature understated elegance.

- Market Leadership: The move strengthens Vandale's presence across all distribution channels, from a strong ecommerce platform to a range of retail stores including boutique luxury and major global retailers.
