She will be honored at IAOTP's annual awards gala at the iconic Plaza Hotel in New York this December for her selection of Top Educational Leader of the Decade.

Beyond her impactful career in education, Ms. Phoebe Wasfy is an active leader in various international and community initiatives. From 2017-2024, she has served on the board of ACSI-Eastern Canada and is an adjunct faculty member of the Canadian Coptic Center's Youth Ministry

Certification Program (YMCP), which partners with YouthTrain in New Zealand. Selected to attend the 2018 World Youth Forum in Sharm El-Sheikh, Egypt, Phoebe continues to expand her global influence, fostering leadership and professional growth among her team and students. She oversees various activities, including organizing youth missionary trips worldwide, collaborating closely with governments, global charities, and international aid organizations to ensure meaningful partnerships. Recently, she initiated the inaugural fundraising campaign for Egypt's Decent Life presidential initiative, led by a group of driven 16- and 17-year-old students, exemplifying her commitment to inspiring youth-driven change and community impact.

Looking back, Ms. Wasfy attributes her success to her perseverance, work ethic, and the mentors she has had along the way. When not working, she enjoys traveling and spending time with her family. In the future, she hopes to inspire and influence those getting into the field.
